COUNTRY	CLASSIFICATION SUCCET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY
	Soviet Zone of Germany REPORT
TOPIC	Schoenwalde Airfield	······································
EVALUATION	PLACE OBTAINED
DATE OF CONT	TENT.	50X1-HUM
DATE OBTAINE	DATE PREPARED 8 August 1950	e-Nami Office (# /@p. digitation in the day opening the
REFERENCES
PAGES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	- North All Charles and All Ch
EMARKS
		a a sage - magnify ( the first strategy angles or spinished and 50X1-HUM
. 7	Party cround attack planes were etauding in front of the hongover of the
1.	Forty ground attack planes were standing in front of the hangars of the Schoenwalde N 53/Z 66) airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twinengine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on their backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no now wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather was fair but there was no flying.	r se
1.	Schoenwalde [4 53/2 66] airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twin- engine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on their backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no not wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather	r se
1.	Schoenwalde [4 53/2 66] airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twinengine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on their backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no now wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather was fair but there was no flying.  Comment. The occupation of the field has not changed since 10 ruly 1950. The field is apparently still occupied by a ground attack regiment and an air reconnaissance unit, a regiment or	r se
1.	Schoenwalde [153/2 66] airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twinengine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on the backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no not wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather was fair but there was no flying.  Comment. The occupation of the field has not changed since 10 uly 1950. The field is apparently still occupied by a ground attack regiment and an air reconnaissance unit, a regiment or squadron.	r se
1.	Schoenwalde [4 53/2 66] airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twinengine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on their backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no now wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather was fair but there was no flying.  Comment. The occupation of the field has not changed since 10 ruly 1950. The field is apparently still occupied by a ground attack regiment and an air reconnaissance unit, a regiment or	r se
1.	Schoenwalde # 53/Z 66) airfield on 16 July 1950. About eight twinengine monoplanes with double rudder assemblies were in the eastern section. * Three single-engine, low-wing monoplanes were lying on the backs in the scrap yard. Unlike the other planes, they had no not wheel and their cockpits were longer and sloped gradually. The weather was fair but there was no flying.  Comment. The occupation of the field has not changed since 10 uly 1950.  The field is apparently still occupied by a ground attack regiment and an air reconnaissance unit, a regiment or squadron.  Decument to hereby regraded to the letter of 16 October 1978 from the letter of 16 October 1978 from the letter of Central Intelligence to the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	r se

CONFIDENTIAL

CLASSIFICATION

SECULT-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS ONLY